

RISK TYPE COMPASS RISK LANDSCAPE PRICE LIST 2023

The Risk Type Compass decision-making tool identifies our risk instincts, enhancing decision-making performance at all levels of the organisation.

Risk Type Compass reports

The personal report covers Risk Type; a stable and persistent part of our decision making, as well as Risk Attitude; a situational disposition towards risk influenced by personal experience and circumstances.

This accounts for intra-individual differences as well as the deeply rooted temperament which is our Risk Type.

Risk Landscape

By mapping the prevalence of Risk Types, the Risk Landscape portrays risk instincts across teams or the entire company. This digital report can be explored and interrogated, enabling risk instincts to be examined and managed. The survey informs decisions about organisational risk culture; differences within teams and individual development projects.

Risk Landscape Survey Prices

Priced by numbers of participants surveyed, each receives a one-page Risk Type report. Full report upgrades and Team Reports also available at list price.
